

Should an eligibility list be created, it may be used to fill permanent, temporary and short term vacancies that may become available over the next 18 months. The eligibility list can also be used to fill other positions, at the same, or other locations, that are at the same grade and substantially the same capability level.